To Rex

It is with deep humility and respect that we, the Class of 1965, do hereby dedicate the '65 Eagle in memory of a classmate, Rex Halberstadt. Rex was killed in an automobile accident June 25, 1964. His enthusiasm will forever be cherished and remembered by the class. All those who knew Rex appreciated his wonderful sense of humor and spirit of cooperativeness. Although he is absent in body, Rex will always be remembered and missed.

Principal's Message

You are now graduating. Many of you will enter into business, industry, or the service trade; some will enter the armed forces; some will take advanced educational training; and some will marry. All of you will look forward to a bright future.

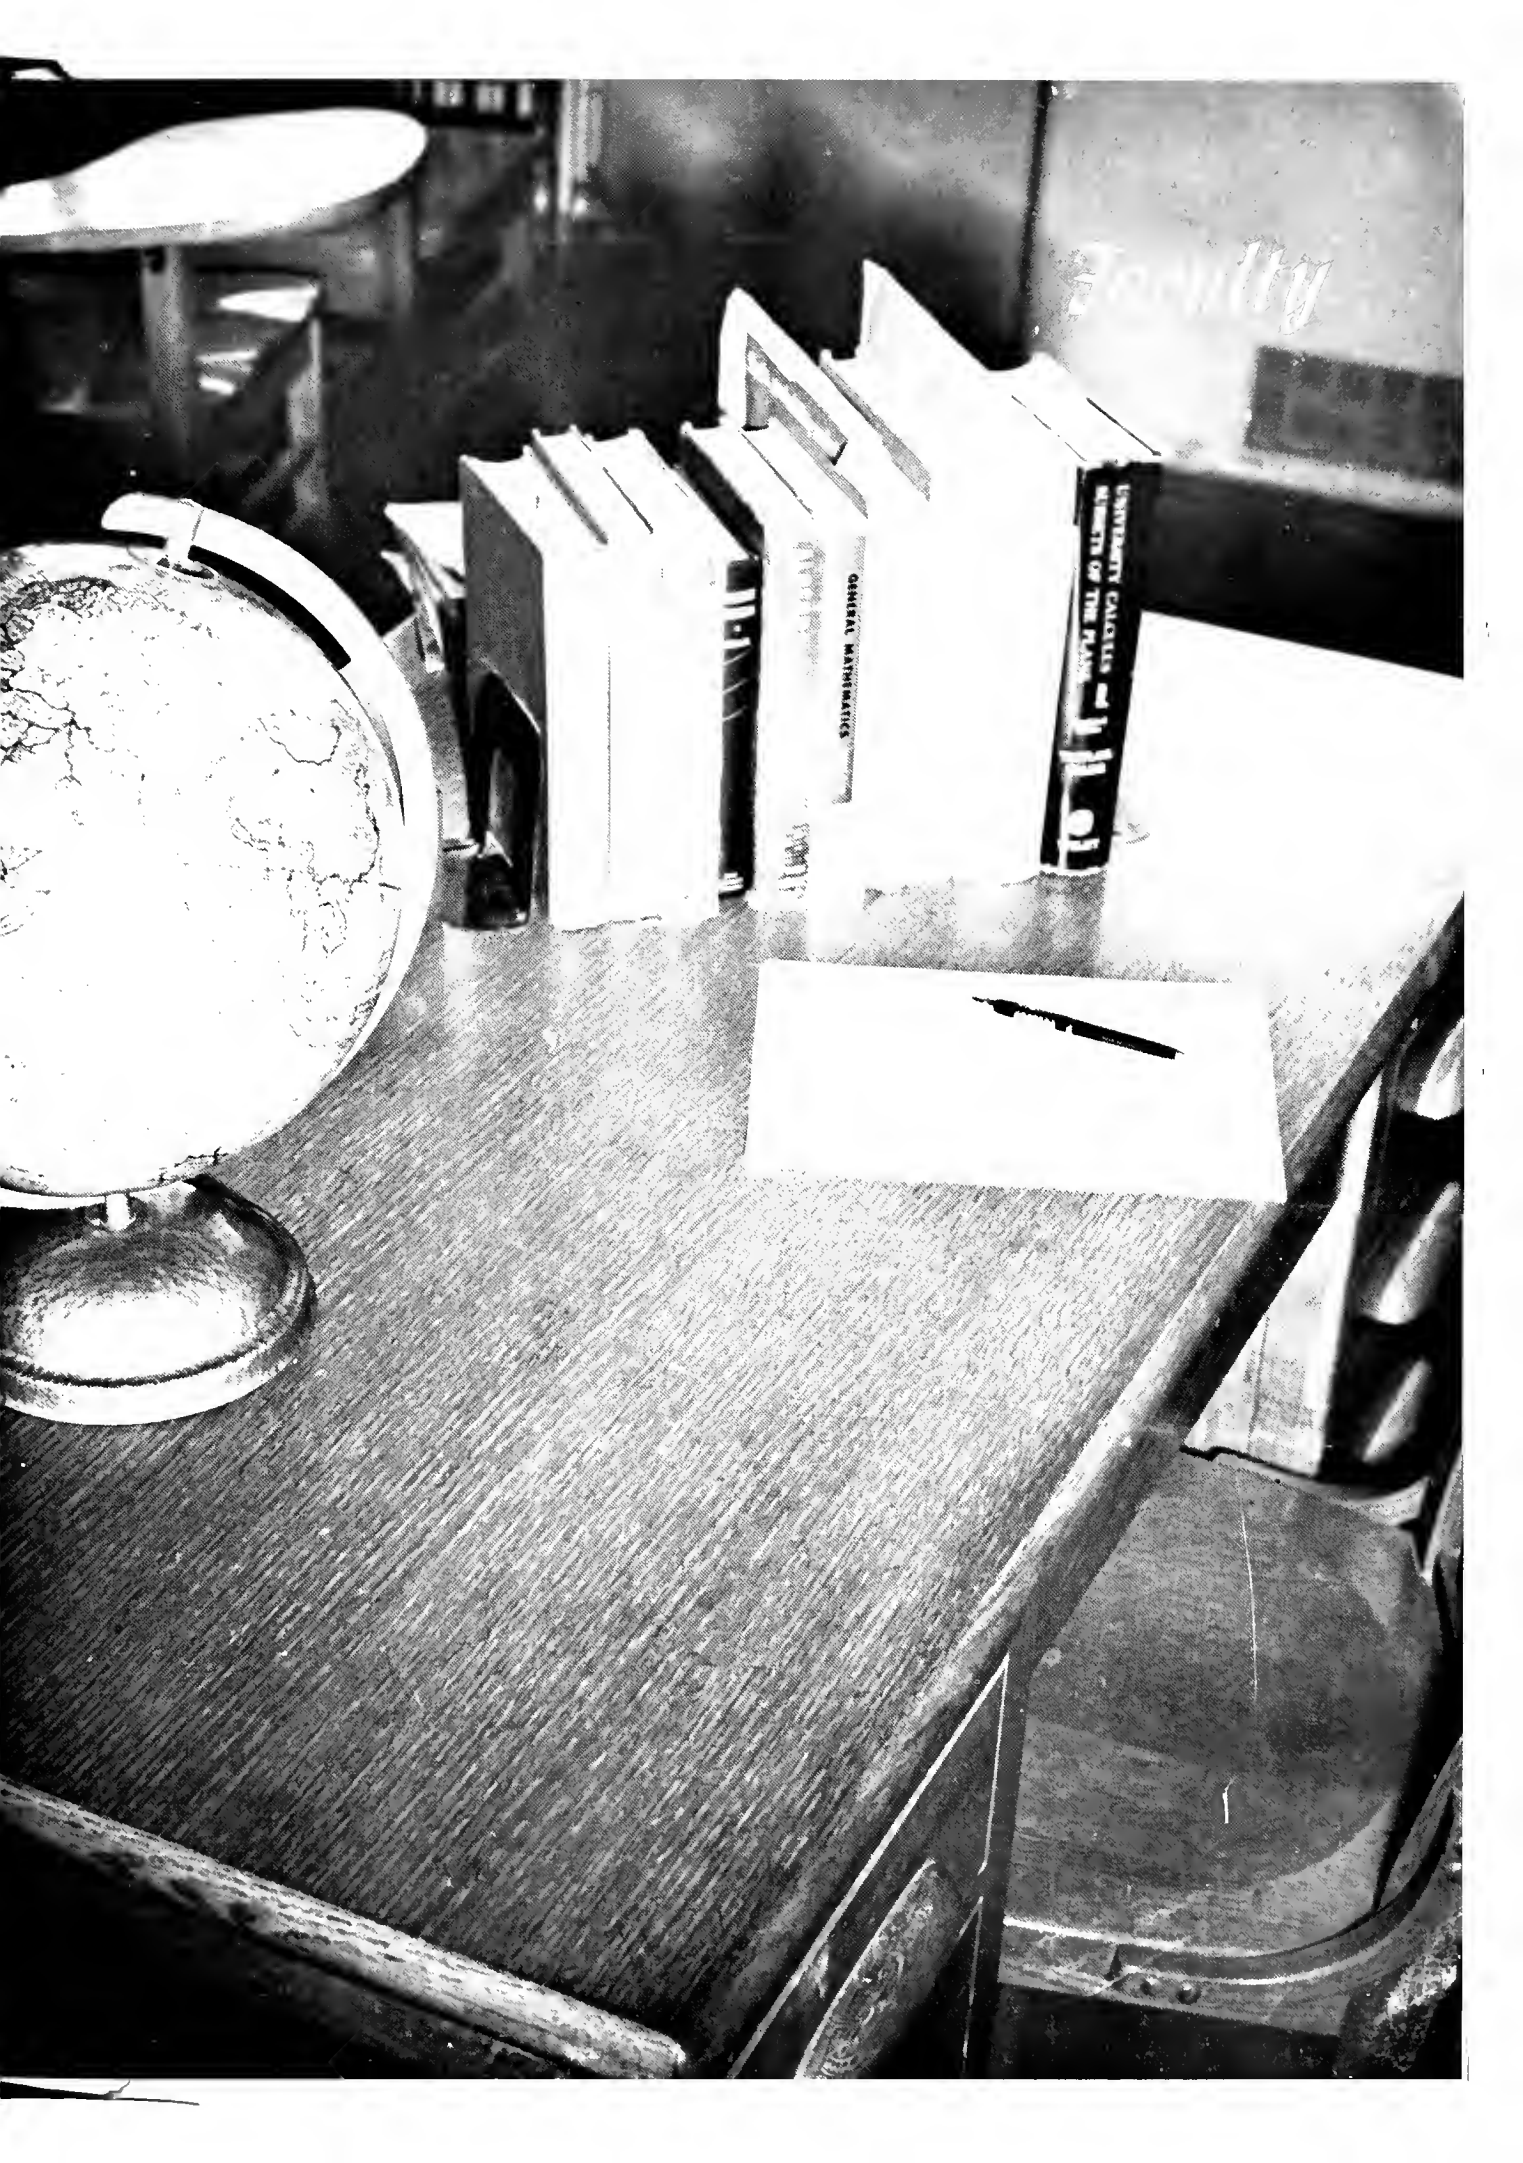

Let us strive to have the best homes, the best schools and the best churches in the nation for our children. This can only be accomplished by all of us working together and doing the very best job we know how to do.

Class

I, Diane Anderson to the art class do bestow 3 pairs of nylons to fill the bill so when in art class the girls get a run, they can get another pair out and run another one.

I, John Auer will my ability to argue with the teachers to Dennis Erxleben and my ability to refuse orders from upperclassmen to Dennis Boerger.

I, Marilyn Biberstein will my ability to behave on the bus to Ronnie Girod and my quietness to Jackie Rice.

I, Dale Bieberich being of sound body and mind, "maybe" will my muscular physique to Dave Myers, my Plymouth's windshield wipers to Sheila Caston and my ability to get home early on New Year's Eve to anyone who has a strong stomach.

I, Susan Bittner will my ability to twirl to Sandra Reinking and my ability to get along with the teachers to anyone who gets into trouble with them.

I, Richard Bleeke will my ability to read music to Ken Folk and my little car to anyone over 6 feet tall.

I, Joan Blume will my extra pairs of nylons to next year's art class or more no-sag chairs. I will my ability to get the senior art award to Joan Scheumann and to my girl friend Sharol Whitman, I will my ability to drive an automatic, a straight stick, and floor shift.

I, Cindy Boerger, will my ability to laugh and cry at the same time to Kristine Fuelling, my ability to tell the truth to Bob Spencer and my good grades to anyone who needs them.

I, Maxine Bulmahn will my quietness around boys to Jackie Rice and my ability to get just a warning ticket to Duane Schuller.

I, Judy Bultemeier will my straight hair and my driving ability to Wayne Sherry, my simple life and ways to Barb Selking and all of my sympathy and pity to Sheila Caston.

I, Suzann Buuck will my ability to behave on the bus to Duane Buuck and my ability to have 3 dates in one week with different guys to anyone who needs it.

I, Ted Buuck will my ability to get along with Mr. Arnold to Jerry Knittle and my bashfulness to some little green freshmen.

I, Danny Conrad will my ability to be afraid of women to Russell Fuhrmann, and my manly, physical body to anyone who might be scared of it.

I, Gary Erxleben will my fine driving ability to Sheryl Boerger and my clean living and sober ways to Jerry Knittle.

I, Nancy Fifer will my hair piece to Mr. Elder and my wonderful time as a senior to the Seniors of 1966.

I, Eileen Fritzinger will my ability to go with a certain Ball State Senior to my younger sister, Marlene, and as much fun as I have had in these past four years to all the incoming freshmen.

I, Freddy Fuelling will my ability to go steady with a real "cute" and "sweet" sophomore girl, for as long as I have, to anyone that can find a girl as nice and my reserved parking space on the bench to any underclassmen with patience.

Wills

- I, Max Fuelling being of sound mind and body will my ability to run cross-country without stopping to Mike Hoffman.
- I, Elden Fuhrmann being of sound mind and no body will my ability to run cross-country under 15 minutes to Dennis Erxleben and my ability to get into all kinds of trouble to anyone who wants it.
- I, Stanley Fuhrman being of (sound) mind do hereby will my phenominal brain to the science department of M. H. S. and my waistline to Mr. Clark.
- I, Linda Geyer, will my natural curly hair to Mr. Elder, and my twirling ability to Jackie Rice.
- I, John Graves will my muscular physique to Brennan Miller, my traffic tickets to Greg Townsend, and my membership card to the Alcoholic's Anonymous Club to Sheila Caston.
- I, Steve Hakes will my heighth to Verlin Bulmahn, my personality to Kathy Schieferstein, my bench blisters to any worthy underclassman, and my curly hair to some blonde Junior.
- I, Sherril Heckman will my ability to control Garys' to Ann Kruetzman and my blonde hair to any brunette who wonders if it's true blondes have more fun.
- I, Vernon Heckman will my ability to get home on New Year's Eve to John Graves and my position at the "Dump" to anyone who can take it away.
- I, Alice Hirschy will my sox to any or all of the high school girls, in hopes that they wear them to school, keeping school a place to be sporty instead of a place to be dressy.
- I, Gary Jeffrey being of sound body will my great mechanical ability to Don Bultemeier and my muscular physique to David Matthews, and my ability to get along with Danny Conrad to Kathy Schieferstein.
- I, Larry King will my ability to run track to Jerry Knittles, and my ability to be a bench warmer to any underclassman.
- I, Nancy Krueckeberg, will my ability to continue to go with one guy for four years to Kathy Schieferstein, my ability to go with a guy without henpecking him to Linda King, and my ambition to work to my sister Rita.
- I, Bob Liby, will my ability to stay sober to anyone who wants to be miserable and my small car to any one who hates girls.
- I, Mike Luginbill, will my ability to get along with Fred Fuelling to Dennie Reinking and my soberness to Rick Whitman.
- I, Jerry Miller, will my height to Verlin Bulmahn, and my 55' Chevy to anyone who wants to give me a G. T. O.
- I, Judy Myers will my good behavior in 3rd period study hall to Jackie Rice, and my ability to talk when I'm not supposed to, to anyone who wants it.
- I, Pam Nidlinger will my ability to not get jealous to my sister, Sheila and my bookkeeping ability (which isn't any) to any junior taking it next year.

Class Wills

I, Janelle Nyffeler will my column in the Democrat to any junior with plenty of aspirin, terrible typing, and free Monday mornings, and my thirteen extra credits to any underclassman having trouble earning his own.

I, Connie Reinking will my height to Russell Fuhrman and my ability to smile to Linda King.

I, Leonard Rekeweg will my ability to be the school's best student manager to anyone who takes my place.

I, Barb Rydell will my quietness to Deb Strickler and my humor to Mr. Mull.

I, Shirley Scheumann will my height to Jerry Hakes, my slenderness to Mr. Elder, and my ability to hold my temper to Mr. Mull. I will my cheerleading ability to Karen Kunkel with lots of luck and my ability to control the Pep Club to anyone who wants to tackle a herd of elephants!

I, Jan Schroeder being of fantastic (one way or the other) body and mind do hereby will my hurdling ability to Mr. Mull and to Duane Buuck I leave my beloved dirty gym shoes.

I, Duane Schuller will my ability to stay sober to Dennis Erxleben and my ability to get out of sixth period study hall to Bruce Laisure.

I, Sandra Teeple, do hereby leave to Ann Kruetzman my ability to remain true to a boy in college (in case she should ever be in need of such again) and my ability to get along with John Auer to Mr. Elder or anyone else with lots of patience.

I, Barbara Werling, will my ability to get through high school without much difficulty to the freshmen, and the fun of being seniors to the juniors.

I, Sharon Witte, will my safe driving ability to Judy Bultemeier, and my ability to put up with a cousin like Karen Schieferstein to any body who wants her.
